| Step to reproduce the bug:   |             |                        |            |
| 1. admin is able to update "update subscription" form without filling in the input field               |             |                        |            |
| 2. without filling input field admin should not be able to update the form.                            |             |                        |            |
| 3. if the admin clicks on the update button then the admin is redirected to the "date base" error page |             |                        |            |
| See attached screenshot:   |             |                        |            |
